Don't forget we are open 1/2 term!

Lord Mayors Parade - Sat 7th June

Thank you for getting the forms to 'Friends of Premier' for your child to participate in the Lord Mayors Parade. We are still in need of a Float and generator - if anyone can help it is really appreciated. Call Gill Beattie 07702 809 751

Our theme is 'Dances of the World' and we are dressing up in various costumes that represent the different countries.

We are also looking for helpers to decorate and 'walk' with the float. We would like to hear from you if you can spare any time to help with this project, we have been involved with this charity event for few times and it's a great day out for everyone.

Fees Due Saturday 7th June

Gosh!... 10 weeks have really flown over, but sorry it's that time for fees and contacts to be updated. Please see Gill

Liverpool Philharmonic Performance

The Allied Dancing Association are producing the 'Allied Showcase 2008' and we have been asked to take part.

The performance commences at 5pm on Sunday 13th July, with the doors opening to the general public at 4.15pm. All participants will need to be there from 9am with a packed lunch etc. A full itinerary of the day will be given nearer the date. The children able to participate in this have to do ballet and are aged 6yrs+ (or Primary level and above). If you have a queries on this please see Gillian Beattie or call 07702 809 751. Tickets are already available from the Allied at £10 (sorry no concessions).

WE NEED YOU NAMES AND COMMITMENT FOR THIS PROJECT BY 29TH MAY

There is a list on the notice board in the foyer for you to add full names of participants, class and age.

DEADLINE IS THURSDAY 29TH MAY.

Please call or email if you can't get into the studio. If your child's name has not been added to the form, they will not be included in the programme
